

Agriculture Research and Education

- Strengthening U.P. Council of Agricultural Research.
- Strengthening and developing partnership with educational institutions and research organizations within India and abroad for development of curriculum and training of faculty and students as well as joint research.
- Establish centre of excellences.
- Strengthening of location specific research facilities at regional research stations.
- Creating infrastructural facilities for frontier areas in SAUs.
- Promoting private sector in advanced research e.g. GM Crops, Nano technology.
- Initiating research in the areas of diversification through Farming System, climatic change, natural resource management, post harvest management, value addition and cost effectiveness, Climatic and other emerging issues.
- Initiation of diploma/certificate courses on vocational courses.